DEAR READERS

Welcome to February's United Messenger.

The Broadway Praise Singers will start their singing again from 12th February after a break to give me chance to update and write some new backing tracks.

Thanks to Parishpumps.co.uk for extra content this month.

Mick

Dear Church Family

"May the Lord bless you and keep you; may the Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you."

(Numbers 6:24-25)

As GOD has bestowed upon us countless blessings, it is essential that we acknowledge these gifts and share them with others. John 3:16 reminds us of His great love for the world, as He sent His only Son to guide us. Jesus, through His teachings and actions, showed us how to live our lives in alignment with God's will. He set an example of love, compassion, and service, telling us that we are the light of the world. This profound call encourages us to reflect His light in our daily interactions, serving as beacons of hope and love to those around us.

I am continually inspired by our commitment to shine the light of Christ in the world around us. In Matthew 5:13-16, Jesus reminds us that we are the light of the world, a city set on a hill that cannot be hidden. This is not just a calling; it is our duty to reflect His love and grace to those we encounter every day.

Jesus, in John 8:12, proclaims, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life." This verse tells clearly that God Himself is the true source of light, guiding us through life's challenges. Like the moon, we are called to reflect His light, illuminating the path for others and bringing hope to those in need.

As Broadway and St. Barnabas Church, we have a unique opportunity to impact our community positively. Let us encourage one another to embrace our ministries actively, reaching out to those in our neighbourhoods, and community. By reflecting the light of Christ, we can love those around us and create a significant difference in the lives of others.

Ephesians 5:8 urges us to "walk as children of light," highlighting the importance of showcasing goodness, righteousness, and truth in our actions. As we do, we collectively embody two important qualities of light: it dispels darkness and brings warmth. Let us be instruments of peace and reconciliation, shining brightly amid challenges and extending warmth and kindness to those we encounter.

In our church and community, let's take the initiative to organize outreach programs, volunteer opportunities, and support for those who are struggling. Whether it's through food drives, community events, or simply sharing a kind word, every act of love contributes to a powerful testimony of Christ's light in our world.

As we focus to reflect this light, let us pray:

"Dear Lord, help us to be true reflections of Your light in this world. May we embrace our call to shine brightly, illuminating hearts with love and hope. Guide our efforts as Broadway/St. Barnabas Church to reach those in need and make a lasting impact in our community. Amen."

Together, let us shine brightly, executing our duty to share the light of Christ with everyone we meet.

Blessings,

Mona

John Donoghue

Two men were in a pub, talking about how highly their wives thought of them. The first man said, "My wife, she thinks so much of me that she won't let me do any work around the house. It's incredible."

The second man said, "That's nothing. My wife thinks I'm God. Every night at the table, she places a burnt offering before me."

Mustard Seed Relief Mission - Love in a Box

FROM THEIR webpage:

What an amazing success the Love in a Box 2025 campaign has been - Mustard seed has collected many thousands of boxes and they have been lovingly distributed again to the children of Moldova with the help of our dear friends at International Aid.

Over the years Working in partnership with International Aid together we have achieved so much for the children.

It's been simply incredible to see so many excited smiles when the children receive their very own box which is sent with such love.

Over the years Mustard Seed has collected, checked and distributed many hundreds of thousands of Christmas boxes that have been carefully put together by our wonderful supporters from Schools, Churches organisations and individuals - we are so grateful to everyone who has kindly taken part in our mission of love.

With this in mind it's with great sadness that the 2025 campaign will be our last year.

Unfortunately, over the years due to the ever increasing cost to provide this lovely project the charity has decided that we can no longer afford to carry on and continue with our Love in a box project - all the stock we had left will be given to international Aid to help fill more shoeboxes

Team Mustard seed would like to thank each and everyone of you for standing with us and supporting our mission over the years - it's been an honour and a privilege to work with you all as together we have achieved so much for the children and created many happy smiles over the years.

So, thank you Broadway for your support each year. Kath

Mona's Service - 18th January - Broadway

ZEBBY (Zebaish Shahbaz) came to share in our service, speaking about mental health. She is studying for PhD in Clinical Psychology. She did a live demonstration with water, a bucket and a washing up bowl.

There are many causes of stress in our lives - money, family, work, relationships, technology - our bucketful of stress fills up and can overflow and overwhelm us. But our stress buckets have a tap which can relieve the pressure. Laughing, being outside it nature, stroking our pets can all help relieve stress.

She provided colourful sheets including information on techniques to help in moments of overwhelm including the 5-4-3-2-1 grounding technique.

Say 5 things you can see, 4 things you can touch, 3 things you can hear, 2 things you can smell, 1 thing you can taste.

The theme of the service, led by Mona, was light and people brought lamps, torches and candles to share. Christians are reminded to be salt and light to a chaotic world.

Christmas Period at Broadway Church

New Year

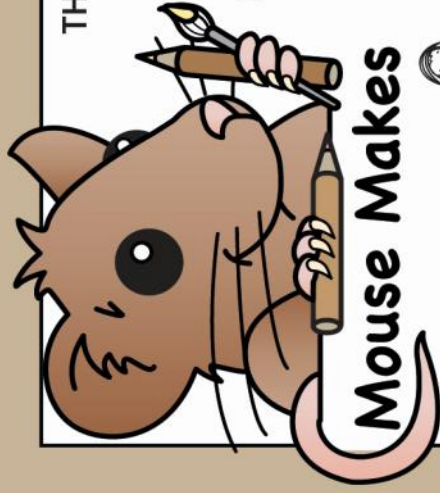

Last night as midnight chimed loud and clear the door was opened wide before me
And I walked across the thresh hold, no fear
Behind me, the door silently closed.

Into 2026, and its' unknowns.
I'm sort of confident... sort of bold..
At the brink of a new year, unique, as yet untold.
Was I sad at leaving behind 2025?
I'd reached the date...healthyish, happyish, alive.

Am I glad to reach into 2026?
A virgin candle, 365 days of unbroken wick.
Burning continuously
Lit from the last millimetre of yesteryears' candle
Looking up, night skies alive with exploding light
Bursts, breaks, orchestrated illuminations, bright
My ears assailed with fireworks flying across the skies.

Faces around me, aglow with excitement, joy..
Let the new year begin
Let the new year in.

All in the month of February

300 years ago, on 20th Feb 1726 that William Prescott, an American colonel in American Revolutionary War was born. Famous for giving the order: "Don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes."

200 years ago, on 4th Feb 1826 that James Fenimore Cooper's historical romance novel The Last of the Mohicans was published.

175 years ago, on 1st Feb 1851 that novelist Mary Shelley died, aged 53. Best known for her Gothic novel Frankenstein.

125 years ago, on 2nd Feb 1901 that the funeral of Queen Victoria took place. (More information on next page)

80 years ago, on 11th Feb 1946, that the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament was published. It was the first major English-language update of the Bible since the King James version was published in 1611.

70 years ago, on 11th Feb 1956 that two members of the Cambridge spy ring, British diplomats Guy Burgess and Donald Maclean, announced that they had defected to the Soviet Union. They had both vanished in mysterious circumstances in 1951.

65 years ago, on 9th Feb 1961 that the Beatles played at the Cavern Club in Liverpool for the first time.

50 years ago, on 11th Feb 1976 that John Curry won Britain's first-ever Olympic gold medal in figure skating.

40 years ago, on 12th Feb 1986 that the Treaty of Canterbury was signed by Britain and France. It was the agreement to construct the Channel Tunnel linking the two countries. The tunnel opened in 1994.

25 years ago, on 19th Feb 2001 that the first case of foot-and-mouth disease in the 2001 UK outbreak was detected at an abattoir in Essex.

20 years ago, on 18th Feb 2006 that the Rolling Stones played the world's largest free rock concert on Copacabana beach, Rio de Janeiro. An estimated 2 million people attended.

The funeral of Queen Victoria

EXACTLY 125 years ago, on 2nd February 1901, the funeral of Queen Victoria took place.

She had died at the age of 81 on 22nd January, having ruled for nearly 64 years, and her death took her family, courtiers and subjects by surprise in difficult times. The Boer war was still in progress, and the previous year the Prince of Wales had been shot at in Belgium, by a boy who was protesting against the war.

Her third adult child – Alfred, Duke of Edinburgh – had just died, another was near death, and she herself had been confined to a wheelchair, almost blind and often confused. She died at the remote Osborne House on the Isle of Wight, and when it happened there was no-one alive who could remember how to bury a monarch.

Victoria had asked for a full military state funeral, and there were secret instructions concerning mementoes of her personal servant, John Brown. The official service in St George's Chapel was chaotic because of timing errors, but it was followed by an emotional ceremony for the family on 4th February, in the mausoleum the queen had built for her husband at Frogmore, adjoining Windsor Castle, where the Queen was laid to rest beside her much-loved Prince Albert.

The total cost was £35,500 (£4.5 million). Victoria had outlived all the members of her Privy Council alive in 1837; all the members who had sat in the House of Commons at that time; and all nine of her bridesmaids.

What has been described as the godly domesticity of the Victorian era appealed to a mainly Protestant public, centring more on morals than on radical evangelicalism and effective prayer. One historian noted the transformation in the general British attitude from “aggressive, brutal, rowdy, outspoken, riotous, cruel and bloodthirsty” to “inhibited, polite, orderly, tender-minded, prudish and hypocritical”.

Paddy says, "Mick, I'm thinking of buying a Labrador.

"Really?" says Mick "have you seen how many of their owners go blind?"

St Barnabas Coffee Morning

ST BARNABAS Church hold a coffee morning every first Saturday in the month. The next one is 7th February 2026.

Bacon rolls are often on the menu and some stalls will be available.

Clive Elrick would like to draw your attention to the book stall: "For a very small donation, there are books on many subjects, ranging from Bible stories, war time accounts, both fiction and non-fiction. Also crime fiction by well known authors, and much more!

"We also have a range of cookery and gardening books which are not easy to spot as they occupy the lower book shelves, due to their size .

"I hope to highlight the best gardening books by putting a few on show on the 7th February, in the hope that, with spring around the corner, we might attract all our gardening enthusiasts to take their pick.

"Please take a moment to look at the book corner. As Tesco says..."Every little helps!"

Thank you Clive Elrick
